Dear Father Pauska:

Dear Dr. Marquis:

I am impressed by your letter of March 1 with its outline of the conference to be held in June. In some ways, it is sad that the Conference on Minority Affairs is only ten years old; on the other hand, it will be good to look back on what has been accomplished and to contemplate hopes for the future. As you must know, Dr. Lee Williames, our assistant provost and director of minority affairs, will be a panelist.

To date, we have no representation from minorities at the level of vice president or dean, though our general hiring process does manifest a genuine consideration for minorities. There is an evolution going on, though not a revolution, and we expect to be part of it. I hope the meeting will be a huge success.

Sincerely yours,

CONFERENCE ON MINORITY AFFAIRS
ASSOCIATION OF JESUIT COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

March 1, 1991

Rev. J. A. Panuska, S.J.
University of Scranton
Scranton, PA 18510

Dear Father Panuska:

This June the AJCU Conference on Minority Affairs will celebrate its tenth anniversary. Our theme is: CMA the Second Decade: Building on Our Past to Prepare for Our Future. The meeting will be held at Saint Louis University, from June 18 to 21, 1991.

This meeting will be an opportunity to celebrate the accomplishments made by Jesuit colleges and universities in the area of multicultural affairs during the past decade. At this meeting we will acknowledge and celebrate the people and programs that are making a difference within the Jesuit system.

The Conference will conduct a panel presentation entitled A View from the Top. On this program African, Hispanic, Asian and Native American senior administrators from our Jesuit colleges and universities will share their perspectives on being an AHANA administrator and the challenge of diversity for Jesuit education.

We request from you the names and titles of the persons of color at your institution who are in senior administration, specifically, vice presidents, associate/assistant vice presidents, presidents and deans. Your administrators will be invited to participate on our June 20 panel. Your encouragement and support of their participation is sought. It is an important opportunity for these administrators to share information about growth at your institution in the area of multicultural affairs.
